Foreword

In the year 1955 you were welcomed to our Comedy Production "You Can't Take It With You". It was a "Broadway" success, for after playing to capacity houses here, it continued through the semi-finals and into the Finals of the Simpson Inter-Collegiate Drama Festival. In this last section the Weston Drama Players achieved second place, and an enthusiastic tribute from the Adjudicator. This year our Comedy—another Broadway Hit—"The Father of the Bride" will enter the Festival.

Mr. Wickett, the Director, has chosen this play for its fun-loving qualities—a mirror held up to one of life's tense though comic spots.

Many long weeks of effort have gone into the production, and those who have contributed to its success receive acknowledgement on the final page of the programme.
